Supplemental Information

EXAM SUBJECTS: The exam is a test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and/or abilities in the following areas:

Situational Judgment: These questions test for the ability to identify appropriate and effective responses to work-related challenges. You will be presented with scenarios that reflect the types of challenges one could encounter in a work environment. Each scenario will be followed by several responses to the scenario. You must rate the effectiveness of each response.

Language Fluency: These questions test for the ability to read, understand, and present a clear and accurate summary of information. For some questions, you will be given a brief reading passage followed by four statements, each summarizing the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given several sentences, one of which contains a spelling, grammatical, or punctuation error. You must then select the line that contains the error.

Information Ordering and Language Sequencing: These questions test for the ability to properly identify the sequence or order of events, or to organize information to fit a timeline. You will be given a brief reading passage followed by one or more questions. You must identify the proper sequence of events in order to answer one or more questions.

Problem Sensitivity and Reasoning: These questions test for the ability to apply information and to identify a problem or potential problem. For some questions, you will be given information in the form of policies, rules, regulations, or laws, which will be followed by a situation. You must then identify the problem and apply the information to select the best course of action to take. For other questions, you will be given a scenario and mock witness statements. You must use this information to answer one or more questions about the scenario.

Selective Attention: These questions test for the ability to focus on completing a task and to pay attention to important details while performing repetitive and monotonous tasks. You will be presented with a series of letters, symbols, and/or numbers. You must select the choice that contains the series of letters, symbols, and/or number that matches exactly.

Visualization: These questions test for the ability to imagine how something will look when it is moved around or when its parts are changed, moved, or rearranged. You will be presented with an image of a face followed by four images of faces. Each face is disguised or altered in some way. Three of the images have a difference in facial structure or facial features. You must select the choice that contains the image with the identical facial structure and facial features.

Spatial Orientation: These questions test for the ability to understand how to navigate within spaces or how to get from one point to another. You will be provided with a map followed by one or more questions. You must imagine yourself at a certain location and orient yourself to the direction in which you would move to get to another location by the shortest (least distance) route.

EXAM SCORE: This examination is being held on a continuous recruitment basis and will be held periodically. Candidates who meet the qualifications and pass the written portion of the exam will have their names placed on the eligible list in the order of final scores, regardless of the date on which they filed or took the test. Generally, the names of qualified candidates will remain on the eligible list for one year. This Civil Service agency or the Department of Civil Service reserve the right to terminate this special recruitment program. Candidates may take this written exam at twelve month intervals.

ADMISSION NOTICE: All applications will be reviewed as they are received. If additional information is needed to process your application, you will be notified by e-mail and given an opportunity to submit additional information to support your application prior to the last filing date. If your application is approved, you will be sent an admission notice approximately one week before the exam date. If you have not received your admission notice three days before the date of the exam, call the Livingston County Human Resources Department.

PERMISSIBLE TOOLS/EQUIPMENT FOR USE DURING WRITTEN EXAM: Use of calculators is prohibited.

EXAMINATION RATING: This written examination is being prepared and rated by the New York State Department of Civil Service in accordance with Section 23-2 of the Civil Service Law. The provisions of the New York State Civil Service Rules and Regulations dealing with the rating of examinations apply to this written test.

EXAM GUIDE: A Guide for the Written Test for Entry-Level Law Enforcement is available at the New York State website: <https://www.cs.ny.gov/testing/testguides.cfm>. Candidates not having access to a computer or the internet may request copy of the test guide from the Livingston County Human Resources Department. If you wish to order a guide by mail, send your request with a self-addressed stamped envelope to the Livingston County Government Center, Human Resources Department, 6 Court St., Geneseo, NY 14454-1043.

EXAM LOCATION: The location will be noted in the admission notice.

TAKING MULTIPLE EXAMS: Persons also applying for examinations offered by another Civil Service agency within New York which are held on the same date must complete a cross filer form, available from the Livingston County Human Resources Department or on our website at <https://livingstoncountyny.gov/539/Employment-Application-and-other-Forms>.

Arrangements must be made to take all examinations at one test site. Unless this form is filed with the Livingston County Human Resources Department at least three weeks prior to the exam date, we cannot ensure that such arrangements will be made. Candidates taking multiple exams on the same date with Livingston County do not have to file a cross-filer form.

Candidates taking more than one exam in different exam series will be allowed the specified length of time for each exam, up to a maximum of eight hours. Example: candidates taking one exam which allows six hours and another exam in a different series which allows four hours, you must complete both tests in eight hours, but you can spend no more time on each exam than the time allotted for that exam.

VETERANS CREDITS: Additional credits are available to veterans who meet certain established requirements. Veterans who have not used their credits may make application for their use. The Veterans Credits application form is available at the Human Resources Department or on our website at <https://livingstoncountyny.gov/539/Employment-Application-and-other-Forms>. Applications for veterans credits must be accompanied by a copy of the candidate's DD214 Member 4 form. No credit may be added after the eligible list has been established.

CHILDREN OF FIRE FIGHTERS AND POLICE OFFICERS KILLED IN THE LINE OF DUTY: In conformance with Section 85-a of the Civil Service Law, children of firefighters and police officers killed in the line of duty shall be entitled to receive an additional ten points in a competitive exam for original appointment in the same municipality in which his or her parent served. If you are qualified to participate in this exam and are a child of a firefighter or police officer killed in the line of duty in this municipality, please inform this office when you submit your application for examination. A candidate claiming such credit has a minimum of two months from the application deadline to provide the necessary documentation to verify additional credit eligibility. No credit may be added after the eligible list has been established.

DISABILITY ACCOMMODATIONS: Any person with a disability requesting reasonable accommodations in order to participate in examinations will be accommodated. To request accommodation, candidates must complete a Livingston County Civil Service Exam Accommodation Request form and submit it to the Livingston County Human Resources Department at least two weeks prior to the date of the exam. Forms may be obtained from the Human Resources Department or on our website at <https://livingstoncountyny.gov/539/Employment-Application-and-other-Forms>.

RELIGIOUS OBSERVER ACCOMMODATIONS: If you need an alternate test date because you are a Religious Observer (for religious reasons, cannot be tested on date of examination(s), you must provide written notice of your need to the Livingston County Human Resources Department by the application deadline. Such notice must include: (1) the exam title, (2) the exam number, and (3) the reason(s) why you cannot take the exam on the scheduled date. The request must be supported by documentation regarding your need.

ACTIVE MILITARY MEMBERS: Special testing arrangements may be available to applicants who are active military members. For further information contact the Livingston County Human Resources Department before submitting an application.

ALTERNATE TEST DATE: Under very limited circumstances, a candidate may be allowed to take an exam on an alternate test date. If you cannot take the exam on the scheduled date, please consult the Livingston County Alternate Test Date Policy which may be viewed on the Human Resources Office page of the Livingston County website <https://livingstoncountyny.gov/539/Employment-Application-and-other-Forms>. In general a request is due to the Human Resources Department two weeks before the examination date. Requests that are not made in a timely manner will be disapproved.

CANDIDATE NAME, EMAIL, AND ADDRESS CHANGES: It is the responsibility of the candidate to notify Livingston County Civil Service of any changes of name, email and/or address. NO attempt will be made to locate candidates who have moved. The form can be found on our website at <https://livingstoncountyny.gov/539/Employment-Application-and-other-Forms>.
